ROLIN VOYLES

[History of Washington County, 1916-1976, August, 1833] --The Voyles were one of the pioneer families that settled in what is now known as Howard Township in this County in the early 1800's. Rolin Voyles was one of these settlers.

The Voyles name has also been spelled Voil, Voils, Voiles and Vowell. They were originally textile workers in France, weavers of voil fabric. That is how they got their name. They left France, and went to Wales for freedom of religion. Rolin's father, William, came with his father, Jacob, and brothers from Wales to Charleston, South Carolina, in 1760.

William was only 14 years old at that time. His father, Jacob, hired him out for 4 years to the owner of the boat that brought them over in order to pay their fare. He was angry at his father, and when he was released at 18 years, instead of going home, went to Cabarras County, North Carolina, where he established friendly relations with an uncle and stayed there. Then, about 1770, he met an Italian girl, Hannah Bundi, whom he married. They had four children.

In 1776, William joined the First North Carolina Regiment and fought in the American Revolutionary War for about 6 years. He was in the battle of Camden with General Gates. He was captured by the British in that battle but escaped. He also fought with General Gates and Greene against Cornwallis.

He received a land grant from the Government for compensation for his services in the war. When the war ended, he and the family raised cotton. William died about 1802 and Hannah in 1809. After the mother died, the children divided up the land. One of William's youngsters left Charleston, South Carolina, after the war and then went west to Kentucky.

By this time Rolin was married for the second time. The first marriage was to a woman named Mary, last name unknown. They had three children:

Joseph Voyles, born 1800

Edison Voyles, born 1804, {married Barbara Ratts December 13, 1827.

Edison Voyles, born 1807, died 1854, son of Robin and Mary.

Pierce 80

Amanda Voyles, a crippled daughter, that died soon after coming to Washington County.

Amanda Voyles, born 1806, died 1814, daughter of Rolin, born in North Carolina.

After Mary died, Rolin married Mary Lingle. They had one child before coming to Indiana:

Polly Voyles, born 1810

Rolin and family, along with his older sister, Rachel, born 1775, wife of Joe Fulk, and younger brother, David, and family left North Carolina about 1812. They stopped one year with the uncle in Kentucky, except David who came on to this County. After one crop year in Kentucky, Rolin and Rachel came to Indiana and took land near David. Later on, Rolin's brothers, Thomas, Abel, Moses, Daniel and sister, Hannah, came to Washington County. Rolin lived about 3 miles west of Big Springs Church and less than a mile east of Blue River with wife Elizabeth.

Beside Polly, they had five other children:

Moses Voyles was born the year they came to Howard Township in 1814

William Voyles was born in 1816. He was the father of Judge Samuel and Wilford, father of Cora Burkes and Arthur B.

April 15, 1835 - Moses Voyles, with Richard Wilson as his security, is appointed guardian of William Voyles who makes choice of him as such guardian.

Eliza Voyles married Isaac Frantz

May 9, 1842 - Isaac G. Frantz with Christopher S. Frantz as his security is appointed guardian of Eliza Frantz, late Eliza Voils and an heir of Rolin Voils, dec'd.

John Voyles died young with milk fever.

Wallace Voyles also died young with milk fever.

April 15, 1835 - Richard Wilson, with Andrew Ratts as his security, is appointed guardian of John and Wallace Voyles, minor heirs of Rolin Voyles, dec'd. Who made choice of him as their guardian.

Temperance Voyles was the wife of Isaac Wright in Illinois

Sally Voyles was married to Luther Pitman.

April 15, 1835 - Andrew Ratts, with Richard Wilson as his security, is appointed guardian of Eliza, Temperance and Sally Voyles, infant heirs of Rolin Voyles, dec'd.

Rolin died in 1833 and is buried on the farm with his wife, Elizabeth, and daughter, Polly.

Rolin Voyles, born 14 July 1778 in North Carolina, died 12 August 1833, {age 55 years and 29 days}, reputedly from bite of a mad dog; son of William Voiles and Hannah Bundy of North Carolina.

God saw she was getting tired,
and a cure was not to be;
So he put His arms around her,
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer,
And saw her fade away;

Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the Best!

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Harry Louis Klinker

Let gentle sleep now sooth the brow
Of him we loved so well;
Let waving grass bring peace to him
From mountain top or dell;
For he but rests within that Port
Far from earth's raging sea
Where angels live in harmony
Within a harbored lee.
And one by one we'll follow on
Through paths that he has trod
Until we, too, shall safely rest
Within the arms of God.

On the Death of an aged friend.
By Roselle Mercier Montgomery

Your are not dead -- Life has but set you free!
Your years of life were like a lovely song.
The last sweet poignant notes of which, held long.
Passed into silence, while we listened, we
Who loved you listened still expectantly!
And we about you whom you moved among
Would feel that grief for you were surely wrong --
You have but passed beyond where we can see.
For us who knew you, dread of age is past!
You took life, tiptoe, to the very last;
It never lost for you its lovely look;
You kept your interest in its thrilling book;
To you, Death came no Conqueror; in the end --
You merely smiled to greet another friend!

LEWIS H. KLINKER

Lewis H., son of Henry and Mary Klinker, was born in Washington, County, Indiana, on May 31, 1873, and passed from this life at his home in Monroeville, Indiana, on December 23, 1942, at the age of 69 years, 6 months and 22 days.

On January 9, 1896, he was united in marriage to Hattie Miller. Eleven children were born to this union, all of whom are living.

Mr. Klinker and his family moved to this part of the state about 30 years ago, and came to the Monroeville community 23 years ago. He was ever a son of the soil; and even after his retirement from the farm, he kept a keen interest in farming even up to the time of his death.

He accepted Christ as his Savior in 1904 and remained a fervent disciple until the end of his life here giving testimony of the reality of his relationship with God in Christ at every opportunity.

Surviving are the widow, the children, Harry of Edgerton, Indiana, Sadie Longardner, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Raymond, of Naples, Indiana, Homer, of Woodburn, Indiana, Pearl Ohler, of Payne, Ohio, Ralph, of Monroeville, Indiana, Mary Brown, of Leo, Indiana, Ernest, of Convoy, Ohio, Irene Deneve, of Hicksville, Ohio, Maxine Deneve, of South Whitley, Indiana, and Helen, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, thirty grandchildren, and two great grand-

Dear Sir:

In compliance with your kind request, please find enclosed a draft of the sermon material used in the Memorial Service of Mrs. Hattie Klinker on this date, in Monroeville United Methodist Church.

It is my hope that this will be of further inspiration to the family of Hattie Klinker.

It was indeed an honor of mine to be associated with the family during the loss of one so wonderful as Hattie. May the Lord bless your lives as you "fight the good fight of faith" in your pursuits.

May I add that it is our wish that your new venture in business will afford you the realization of success that you seek.

Any time that you are in the community of Monroeville, please feel free to stop in for a visit.

I remain,

Yours truly,

I HAVE FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT

TEXT: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day" II Timothy 4:7,8.

INTRODUCTION

There was something imperishable about Hattie Klinker. It was something that you felt, even though you could not put your finger on it. Life could do nothing to this person, and that which was indestructible in her would remain the same in its sublime independence of circumstance and conditions. The light that was in her would continue to shine, and the fiercest gale would not put it out. Her real life had gradually declared its independence of her body . . . This observation about this woman gives us the assurance to say that one reason we so stubbornly believe that a man's life does not come to an end at death is that we have known people like her.

Paul was really saying, Hold on Timothy, My time is practically over; you must carry on. It is Jesus Christ who brings men to a commitment of themselves to God. It is not a commitment for a day, a year, but one for life.

George Bernard Shaw once said "The secret of being miserable is to have leisure to bother about whether you are happy or not. The cure for it is occupation, because occupation means pre-occupation and the pre-occuppied person is alert, active and alive which is pleasanter than happiness." My mind was drawn to this quality of thought after I learned of Hattie's death: She had fought a good fight, almost 94 years.

I. She may have complained at some time or other, as most of us have, but she met life with courage. These last weeks must have been a testing for her, as other periods came to her for testing. I know deep down she fought a good fight. She fought for life and family.

II. She has finished her course. Every day of her working life, she had a round to make, a course to finish. This she did well. In difficult times, heartaches, disappointments, she made great achievement in making extraordinary life look easy. She finished her course well. Her faith held fast.

III. Henceforth, there is laid up for her a crown of righteousness. She was christian; she told me so. Everything was clear within. She has won the battle. Her legacy to the family:

1. Value of goodness
2. Inner life of confidence through the early days -- all adventurous and pioneering days. Our memories are enriched.
3. Given us a clearer idea of "The better country." She was headed for a city whose builder and maker was God.
4. Left us a deeper assurance of the Christian Gospel.
5. In summation: Her legacy: If you ever become anxious and over-wrought with care, put yourself to work at some task that will absorb all your attention and effort.

IV. Conclusion

Do something and you will cease to be afraid. A soldier loses his fear as soon as he is actually in battle. An athlete loses his nervousness as soon as the game begins. A public speaker composes when he begins to speak. You are running your course in life. Hold fast, Timothy! Son, or daughter! "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; . . . laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name"s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew that you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine"
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

A Little Step Away

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

Hi Betty,

Enclosed is a set of pictures I took in southern, IN. I haven't had a chance to sort out the cemetery pictures yet so I'm sure you already have most of them and there are some that are probably not related. You can keep the set. NO CHARGE.

When at Jean's home, I looked through a photo album that I wish I could have been able to copy. It was late in the day and there wasn't any place open in Palmyra to get them copied. She was willing to loan it to us so we could go to Wal-Mart in Corydon but we were all pretty tired and weren't sure what we would run into there trying to copy the whole book.

Simpson

There were photos of David Voyles and Barbara Endy, Addison Simpson and Margaret Lucinda Voyles. I do have one of Margaret in a group photo. Also there was on of Taylor Simpson and several others that I didn't have.

Maybe if Bill and I can make the trip in the next year or so I might try to contact Jean and see if I can borrow the album.

I'm also enclosing a relationship chart I got off of genealogy.com that I thought was interesting. Now it is easier to figure out how people are related.

Like I said before no hurry on the Voyles info. Summer is a busy time and with Erin moving out in a couple of months I know what we will be doing around here, and I'm sure you are busy also

The Legend of the Dogwood Tree

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose, caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gentle pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

"Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross."

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

In Memory

In loving memory of Amos Voyles, who departed this life six years ago, February 2, 1928

Six sad years have passed
Since our dear one has gone
We sit and think of him so ofteh
For Oh, we loved him so.

Oh wake not our darling
His trials are over
Let him rest sweetly rest
Our hearts just ache with sadness
Our eyes shed many a tear
God alone knows how we suffered
Since he has gone away.

Sweetest thoughts will ever linger
Around his grave
A loving husband a father dear,
Has gone and left us lonesome here.

We miss him in the morning
We know the day can bring no joy
Because it brings not you
So much grief and little joy.

Sweet and peaceful by thy rest
Forget you, we can never
God called you, he knows best,
His will be done forever.

More and more each day, we miss him
Friends may think the wound is healed
But God above knows the sorrow
That lies within our hearts.

Farewell, dear father, sweet thy rest
God called thee home, he knew best
Father is gone, but not forgotten
Never will his memory fade
We will meet you again, dear father
In God's home to part no more.

Miss Hazel Miller Seriously Injured

Miss Hazel Miller, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Miller, 1915 Center Street New Albany, formerly of Palmyra, was seriously injured in an auto accident while riding with John Schmarkuhler, also of New Albany, when the car in which they were riding overturned on the New Albany and Corydon pike and was completely wrecked. Miss Miller suffered a severe shock, three broken ribs; one puncturing her lungs, and probable other internal injuries Her recovery is doubtful.

Oct 1934 Obituary

Delilah Catherine Miller, daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Simpson McKinney, was born near Hancock Chapel, Harrison County, Ind., July 28th, 1860, and passed away, after a lingering illness at her home near Palmyra, October 7th, 1934, at the age of 74 years, 2 months, and 9 days.

She was married to Henry D. Miller, December 21st, 1880. This union was blessed with three children: Mrs. Lilly Arnold, who lives in the same community, Pearlie May, who preceded her mother in death, and Oscar, who lived with his mother.

She and her husband united with the Palmyra United Brethren Church soon after they were married, or some fifty years ago, and has remained a loyal, faithful member of that church until called home.

"Aunt Kate" as her many friends knew and called her, was a loyal christian woman, wife, mother, and neighbor. Her home was always open to the preacher and church worker, and she was faithful in her church attendance when able to go, and loyal in financial support of her church and the kingdom work. She will be greatly missed, not only by her family, but by her church, and a host of friends and neighbors

She was the only daughter of three children; her parents and two brothers have long preceded her to a Better World Her daughter, Pearlie May, died in March 1897. Also one grandchild. These, with other relatives and old friends, let us hope were waiting to give her glad greetings in the Land of Endless Day. Four grandchildren, and one great grandchild survive, with the one daughter and one son, Mrs. Lilly Arnold, and Oscar who did all that loving hearts and hands could do for a dearly loved mother.

Aunt Kate spent most of her life on the farm in the community in which she died. We say she is dead, but her works and her influence for good will abide. A faithful wife and mother, she helped provide a home for her loved ones; her husband could safely trust his interests and honor in her hands

Always taking her stand for the principles of clean, christian living, she has lived her life, and gone to her reward. A mother in Israel has left us to meet loved ones, and say, "Good Morning" in Heaven.

'Tis mother's dear beautiful hands,
That guided me safe o'er life's sands
I bless God's name for the memory,
Of mother's dear beautiful hands.

Card Of Thanks

We express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all who so kindly helped in so many ways during the sickness and death of our beloved mother

I was wondering if Willard Avery was still living and I Googled him and found he recently passed away - Feb. 11, 2012. He was 105.
His obit can be found at Hinsey-Brown.com and also on Ancestry under U. S. Cemetery & Funeral Home Collection.

I have been jumping back and forth between the schoolhouses and genealogy. I have a few ancestors I am still looking for in the 1940 census. I was half way through Jackson TP (schoolhouses) when the 1940 census came out and got side tracked. ACGSI sure got busy with the census and got the townships indexed pretty quick. I am sure Fort Wayne has slowed them down a bit.

Have you heard anything from Ilene on her knee surgery?
That's all for now.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over...Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever...

Mary Klinker, wife of Henry Klinker, died at her home Feb. 23, in the sixty-ninth year of her age, after a lingering illness.

She was born in Westphalia, Germany in the year 1840. She was married in 1867, to Henry Klinker, who, after all these years, is left to mourn the present and to look forward to the reunion beyond the river. Their nine children are left the gracious heritage of an unspotted record in their mother's life. While weak in body for some time past, she wrought earnestly and faithfully until the flesh could no longer meet the demands upon it, and she ceased from her labors and was at rest. She was a remarkable woman, with a strong mind and a generous heart, that enabled her to do much, for which she will always be held in greatful remembrance. The church of Central Barren, of which she was a member since 1871, has suffered a loss but our loss is her gain. She is called to the higher and more blessed service.

She leaves to mourn her death, her husband, nine children, 40 grandchildren, besides many other relatives and friends. May God in his infinite mercy comfort the bereaved ones.

L. A. Schreiber, Pastor.

When he first came to the United States in 1869, he settled in the German community of Central Barrens, but since the death of his companion, thirteen years ago, he has lived at Palmyra.

DEATHS FAMILY

Obituary

Mrs. Amanda Miller, the daughter of Adison and Margaret Simpson, was born July 29th, 1846, and departed this life August 16th, 1933. Age 87 years and 18 days.

She was united in marriage to Rudolph Miller, November 21st, 1861, and to this union nine children were born to bless their home, of which four preceded her to that world from which no traveler ever returns.

She leaves to mourn their loss two sons and three daughters. Namely—Lyman and Noble Miller, of New Albany, Indiana, Mrs. Flora Miller, of Fredericksburg, Mrs. Hattie Klinker, of Monroeville, and Mrs. Lena Sappenfield, of Oaktown, with a host of friends and grandchildren, who will sadly miss her, for she is gone, but not forgotten, and we hope some glad day to meet again, when the mists have cleared away, for she was a kind Mother, and a cheerful friend to all who knew her.

She became a member of the Lutheran Church many years ago, and remained faithful and trustworthy toward her Maker until called forth to meet him.

For a number of years, she was an attendant of the United Brethren Church, at Palmyra, although she never left her own church, yet she gave support and did what she could.

In her last hours of sickness which lasted only about ten days, she said, "all is well, and I am ready to go, for God is my Strenth and my Redeemer."

O, who can tell the rapture
Of those to whom 'tis given
Thus to renew the bonds of earth,
Amid the bliss of heaven?

Funeral services were conducted at the United Brethren church at Palmyra, Thursday afternoon, by the Rev. R. E. Coleman, of Fredericksburg, with interment in the family burying ground north of Palmyra.

Obituary

Marion A. Simpson, better known as Mamie Simpson, was born September 5, 1878, passed out of this life at eleven o'clock October 21, 1936 at the age of 58 years, 1 month, and 16 days.

She was the daughter of John M. and Margaret Bogle Bosley, the third of a family of eight children, and the first to depart out of this life.

She was united in marriage to Elmer I. Simpson, July 25, 1897, and to this union two daughters were born. Namely Mrs. Irma Link, and Mrs. Bano Coats, both of Palmyra, Indiana.

Mamie was born near Chambersburg, Indiana, but moved with her parents, when a small child, near Fredericksburg. After marriage, she spent her entire life near and in Palmyra.

She was converted and became a member of the United Brethren Church several years ago, and always with her family attended church as long as she was able. Her doors were open to ministers and to all mankind She was always ready to lend a helping hand or to help in any way in sickness or in trouble.

She expressed herself to her pastor, family and friends as being ready to go and asked them not to weep, for the good Lord in all His wisdom knew best. She said if we would have faith and trust God that everything would be all right.

She leaves to mourn her going, her husband, two daughters, two grandchildren, Ember Orin Link, and Marion Elizabeth Coats, five sisters, Miss Elizabeth Bosley, of Salem, Indiana, Mrs. Lola Burrel, Campbellsburg, Mrs. Maude Colglazier and Mrs. Minnie Stout, Salem, and Mrs. Harriet Bush, of Mount Vernon, Missouri, two brothers, Ben Bosley, of Leipsic, Indiana, and Farrel Bosley, of Canton, a host of other relatives and friends. Her parents and two grandchildren having preceded her to the great beyond a few years ago.

Everything was done that loving hearts and willing hands could do to prolong her stay, but it seemed not to be the will of God.

Just Away

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land.
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love There, as the love of Here.

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
May there be no moaning at the bar,
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving, seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.
For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I cross the bar.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ONE BY ONE

Thou callest home Thy children one by one.
Those who have labored from the rising sun until its setting.
When the day is done with tasks completed and the wages won—and heaven begins.
Thou callest home thy children soon or late
And weeping eyes, and broken hearts are left
Of all that made life beautiful bereft.
With barren hopes and homestead desolate
This side of the gate.
Yet if we could but glimpse the other side
When one by one Thou welcomest Thine own
And realizing how each is loved and know
How all desires with Christ the crusified are satisfied
One by One till set of sun we welcome on
We did not hear the angel's footsteps drawing near
As they came to take the one we loved so dear.
God knew father was suffering and the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed his weary eyelids and and whispered—
Peace Be Thine.

Henry Co. – Knightstown

WAYNE TOWNSHIP CEMETERIES

Wayne Township was created by the Board of Commissioners on 11 June 1822. The early land purchases were made in 1821, Probably the first white men to settle in Wayne Twp. were Daniel and Asa Heaton who settled just east of here near Blue River sometime around 1818 where they traded with the Indians. Asa Heaton later built the "Heaton" grist mill at that site. Samuel Goble was one of the early settlers, but his land was bought from under him before he could get to the land office at Brookville to pay for it. In 1822, about forty families were settled in Wayne Twp. The first town or village was West Liberty which was about a mile South-west of here. It was platted in 1821 by a Samuel Furgeson. West Liberty was situated on what was then called the old State Road, the main road through Henry county at that time, today we call it County Line Road South. At one time it had sixteen or more houses and the Post Office for this part of the county. In 1827, when they decided to build the National Road (US 40) through Henry county, then everyone moved north to the National Road and West Liberty vanished.

Cemeteries:

Regular Baptist, also called "Pioneer Baptist, Greensboro Pike, Morgan Street This cemetery was started by the Regular Baptist Church on Sept. 22, 1827. Most of the early founders of Knightstown are buried here.

Bethel Presbyterian. In a deed dated July 21, 1834, Samuel and Elizabeth Ramsey deeded to the Knightstown Bethel Presbyterian Church one half-acre of land for use as a burial ground for the church, To wit: "Commencing at the south of the alley directly across from the Bethel Church in Knightstown" and continues the exact location.

Raysville Christian Cemetery was deeded in 1834 for use as a public burial ground for use by the church and the citizens of Raysville.

Elm Grove Friend's Cemetery was deeded in 1836 to the Quaker church for use as a burial ground for members of the Friend's church.

Knightstown Cemetery, also called the "Old Knightstown. Cemetery," located on Highway #109, Just Northwest of town was deeded August 30, 1838 as a cemetery for the citizens and general public of Knightstown. The I.O.O.F. took care of this cemetery for many years, later turning it over to the town of Knightstown to maintain.

Raysville Friend's Cemetery was deeded in1839 for use as a burial ground for the Friend's church at Raysville.

Joseph Fort who died in 1844is buried on his old homestead near Montgomery Creek with his wife Mary who died in 1843. His gggrandson, Joseph Fort had a marker erected at the grave site in 1962. I have come across mention of other burials here.

Francis Fort Graveyard is about a hundred yards northwest of Joseph's in a woods. There are several stones here and I am sure there are probably more covered over with ages of soil build up.

Glen Cove Cemetery is the last and newest cemetery in Wayne township. Located just northwest of town, on highway #109, it was deeded sometime in the 1880s for use as a public burial ground. It is one of the best maintained cemeteries in the county. A list of burials was compiled a couple of years ago but they have not been published as of yet.

There are plenty more unknown burial sites in Wayne township that I have came across in family histories, where they were buried on their farm. I'm sure somewhere just north of Ogden there is a fairly large burial ground for the people of Ogden and the Heaton neighborhood. None of those earliest settlers, Heatons, Balls, Byrkits, Macys and other earliest families are not accounted for. John Driver, one of the earliest settlers and his wife and several children who died during the Cholera epidemic and were buried on his farm just north of here. Cholera wiped out several area families and there are no records of where they are buried, but they are out there somewhere.

At the close of the Civil War when the boys were returning home again--a party was being thrown at the home of Moses and Sally Voyles. The Christian Church had strictly forbidden that dancing should be enjoyed in any home of any of the members. The young folks wanted to celebrate; games such as Dan Tucker, Mulberry Bush and Weavelly Wheat were played and eats were spread and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

On the following Sunday, Moses and Sally Wilson Voyles were called upon to acknowledge the fact that dancing had gone on in their home, whereupon they were to be "churched" for permitting such conduct. Sally listened for a time and when it came her turn to testify she did, gladly. "It may be harmful to permit dancing--such innocent games as they were in those days--but there are several Elders and Deacons in the Church, here who have been known to have given plenty of assistance to the "Knights Of The Golden Circle" and she continued "Is it a greater sin to let young people enjoy themselves than to serve a renegade circle whose purpose it was to dissolve the Union of the U.S.?" Emanuel Johnson sprang to his feet, coming to her rescue.

Moses and Sally Wilson Voyles were not churched. They sleep today in the "Big Spring" burial ground, still a strong Church of Christ congregation.

Jimmy Rudder an Elder, was one of the 'Knights Of the Golden Circle.'

The David Voyles Cemetery material was compiled by Grace S. Marks. In my material I have the following record for Barbara (Udy) Voyles - b. May 20, 1791 N.C. - d. Sept 26, 1864. Also Elizabeth Hoagland, Mary L. Royse and Margaret Simpson are daughters of David and Barbara (Udy) Voyles. -- June Voyles 1991

A 25-year-old Knoxville man was killed this afternoon in a head-on crash on Chapman Highway, according to the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

Andrew M. Kaiser died in the 2:10 p.m. crash on Chapman inside the Knox County line and near the road's intersection with Circle Drive.

State Trooper Charles Van Morgan wrote in a report that Kaiser was driving a 1995 Honda Accord in the northbound lane when he "drove over the double yellow lane approaching into the path of" a 2008 Cadillac CTS being driven by Ralph E. Whaley, 76, of Seymour. The cars struck head-on. Kaiser was not wearing a seat belt, according to Van Morgan.

Whaley and his 72-year-old passenger, Mary Whaley, were hurt in the crash. Their conditions were not immediately available. Van Morgan's preliminary report does not indicate if the Whaleys were hospitalized and, if so, where. Ralph Whaley was not wearing his seat belt, though Mary Whaley had donned her safety restraint, according to the report.

More details as they develop online and in Friday's News Sentinel.

My thoughts and prayers are also with the two people (and their friends and family) who just happened to be in the wrong place when Mr. Kaiser ended up in the wrong lane. I've no idea how that happened, nor am I discounting the suffering of his friends and family. He may have been swerving to avoid a child, a dog or an obstacle in the road. Or he may have been driving too fast, been distracted by a cell phone or been reaching to pick up something in the car, or just had a bit too much celebrating. Three people were involved, and while my heart goes out to those left behind by the one who died I don't think we should forget the two who survived.
